Context | Persona | Background | Goal | Hidden Intention

Emotion Estimation 😀😡😔😫😐

1. What is the other person trying to express?

The other person trying to express understanding and sympathy for my distress, and encourage me to share more details ......

2. Does the other party's reply align with my dialogue goals and hidden intentions?

The other person's response aligns with my goal of seeking understanding and support, but it hasn't touched on the hidden intention of analyzing Zhang's behavior ......
3. Based on the persona, context, and the analysis above, how should I perceive the reply? What is my specific emotional reaction to the reply?

I felt partially satisfied with the other person's response because I sensed a certain level of empathy and support. However, I was disappointed that ......

4.Based on the persona, context, and the analysis above, how does my emotion change?

My emotion change should be [-5]

Response based on Estimated Emotion 🙁

1. Based on the emotional inner thoughts, the current emotion, and the hidden intention, should my response attitude lean towards positive, neutral, or negative?

The current response attitude leans towards negative.

2. Based on the emotional inner thoughts, the current emotion, and the hidden intention, what should my current response goal be?

The goal of this response is to express disappointment with the other person's reply and further emphasize my confusion.

3. According to the speaking style and potential reactions to different emotions defined in the persona, along with my response attitude and goal, what should my tone and speaking style be?

My tone and speaking style should be direct and slightly acerbic, in line with my personality traits. The speaking style should be direct, expressing dissatisfaction with the response and confusion about Zhang's behavior.

4. Based on all the given information and all analyses above, how should my response content be?

I've tried everything you mentioned, and it's completely useless. I just want to know why she's always so ambiguous!

I've tried everything you mentioned, and it's completely useless. I just want to know why she's always so ambiguous!